RE: Riley, Charlie
CCA No. PD-0255-18
Trial Court Case No. 16-06-07316-CR
COA: 09-17-00124-CR

Dear Ms. Williamson:

We received via email two copies of the attached notice that oral arguments will be permitted in this case and requesting that we advise of our intent to argue. There does not, however, appear to be any date scheduled for the arguments either through this letter or in any other document that we have been able to locate on the Court's online portal.

In any event, lawyers for Commissioner Riley were present at the arguments in the consolidated Doyal case (PD-0254-18). While I am always willing to argue any case -- and this case in particular -- we are of the opinion that the arguments in the Doyal case combined with the various briefs adequately present the issues to the Court. Thus, unless there are additional issues -- beyond those in our brief and as presented in the Doyal argument -- that the Court believes would be advanced through additional arguments, we will waive oral arguments in this case and request that this case be decided in conjunction with the consolidated Doyal and Davenport cases based on the briefs on file and the arguments made by the parties. Of course, if the Court believes that additional arguments on any issue would be worthwhile or useful, we remain willing and prepared to argue them.

Sincerely,

W. Troy McKinney
